WOODSIDE destroying Aboriginal sacred site

From the newswire: On Thursday 24 May, WOODSIDE is hosting a dinner to commemorate the 1967 Aboriginal Rights Referendum.

WOODSIDE says that it supports Aboriginal rights. But WOODSIDE is still destroying an Aboriginal sacred site at Murujuga/The Burrup. The traditional owners have told WOODSIDE they don't want its "Pluto" LNG plant at Murujuga/The Burrup. WOODSIDE has ignored the traditional owners. It continues to remove rock art, desecrating this sacred site.

Help Friends of Australian Rock Art (FARA) expose WOODSIDE's hypocrisy, by attending an urgent Stand Up for the Burrup vigil Thursday 24 May, 5.30pm WOODSIDE Plaza, 240 St George's Terrace PERTH.
