

Letters

The State Government must intervene to save the cultural site found at the Hope Downs iron ore mine. It is a disgrace that Gina Rinehart and Rio Tinto have more respect for increasing their already massive wealth than for protecting 40,000 years of Aboriginal and human history. This site is worth far more to humanity than a few more tonnes of iron ore and yet another great big hole in the Pilbara.

Tim Nicol. Osborne Park